

WESTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY CIVICS COURSE IMPLEMENTATION TRAINING

June 20 & 21, 2018

8:00 am – 3:30 pm

Horrabin Hall, 62

FREE!

14 PD Hours

Are you a high school social studies teacher who needs a more in-depth understanding of how to teach civics leading into the implementation of the new required semester-long civics course?

If so, this workshop is for you!

To register: <https://www.illinoiscivics.org/resources/calendar>

Here are the outcomes for our 2018 civics education workshops:

- Understand the benefits of civic learning from the perspective of multiple community stakeholders.
- Review the components of the new civic course requirement.
- Review civic learning components via the Illinois School Code.
- Use pedagogy that empowers students with the knowledge, skills and dispositions of effective civic engagement.
- Evaluate lessons using the new Illinois Social Studies Standards and Charlotte Danielson's Framework for Effective Teaching.
- Evaluate curriculum related to simulations of democratic practices.
- Assess best practices using current and controversial issues in the classroom.
- Connect with professional development providers to access resources and networks to support effective civic education.
- Create or revise a lesson/unit using the IL Social Studies Standards and the proven practices of civic education.

Contact Dr. Barry Witten at: bl-witten@wiu.edu or (309) 298-1789 for more information.

ROBERT R.
MCCORMICK
FOUNDATION

Supported through the Robert R. McCormick Foundation and Western Illinois University, Department of Curriculum and Instruction

