

Poverty and Planning Classroom Instruction

Thursday, November 2, 2017
Adams County Health Department
330 Vermont Street
Quincy, IL

OR

Wednesday, November 15, 2017
Four Rivers Special Education
936 West Michigan Ave.
Jacksonville, IL

8:30 AM Registration
9:00 AM-3:30 PM Training
Breakfast
Lunch on Your Own

Please bring a wifi device, laptop or tablet, to access online resources.

Target Audience:

Teachers, Paraprofessionals, Counselors, Social Workers, School Psychologists, Administrators

The focus of this workshop will be the following:

- How issues of poverty impact learning
- How teachers can consider the key characteristics and patterns of poverty as a natural part of planning classroom instruction
- How teachers can intentionally plan and implement instruction for relevancy and for student engagement when instruction is driven by state and local standards
- How teachers can use their understanding of poverty and connect with students to increase achievement by building effort and motivation, positive attitude and behavior, and cognitive capacity.

PRESENTER:

Dot Nelson

Ruby Payne Trained

Instructor, Quincy University

- Based upon the work of Eric Jensen, Paul C. Gorski, Tish Howard, Carol Ann Tomlinson, Ruby Payne

Registration fee: $15

To register follow this link:

November 2nd:

<https://goo.gl/forms/A6lQVqRa0GwD1US62>

November 15:

<https://goo.gl/forms/D7hxETt6lwyGK5v1>

For more information email: jcory@roe1.net

Or call the ROE at 217-277-2080

